

This is a joke! If you allow radio broadcasters to set the rules, better services will never make it to the public forum. We need more companies like XM and Sirius to push the old money stallwarts to change their ways.
PS - I feel sorry for your father Mr. Powell